SULLIVAN'S ISLAND .- The Very Rev. Dr. Ber mingham will officiate in the Catholic Church, on the island, at seven o'clock, Sunday forencon.

MUSIC ON THE BATTERY .- The Phoenix Brass Band will perform this afternoon at the

A KIND GIFT .- The Sisters of Mercy grate fully acknowledge the donation of four suits of clothing from Wm. Matthiessen, Esq., for the orphan boys under their charge.

FISH FOR THE ORPHANS .- Five strings of fish, for sale on Thursday afternoon without the required license, were taken from the vender and carried to the Guardhouse by an argus-eyed policeman. The confiscated property was dispatched at once to the Orphanhouse, and the Mayor next morning confirmed the disposal thus made by the ef-fi-h-ent officer. It is pleasant to see justice thus mindful of her "scales" and so anrious to aid in economizing the fin-ances at the Orphanhouse.

THE LAST OF THE RADICAL PROCESSION.—Begeen 12 and 1 o'clock Thursday night, or rather yesterday morning, when the Radical procession, after having escorted Mayor Pillsbury home, had arrived at the Citadel Square, a disturbance arose in the crowd. Samuel Dawson, colored, struck a colored boy named Solomon Flinn over the head with a club. Dawson was arrested and brought before the Mayor in the morning. Solomon appear the force of the crack-skull blow which had been dealt him. The Ma or, however, with all the glow of his speech the night before upon him, overlooked these little ebuilitions of play me humor in his pets, and dismissed the club little with his usual urbanity.

A GALLANT ACT .- About 5 o'clock on Thurs day afternoon, as a party of boys were bathing at the floodgate near the offices of the Savannah and Charleston Railroad, one of their number, a James Smith, got beyond his depth, and was unable to stem the current and swim back. He was about to drown, and had sunk twice when his companions raised their voices for help. Mr. S. W. Fisher, the treasurer of the company, was attracted by their cries, and, running to the spot, saw in a moment what had happened. Without waiting to get rid of any encumbrances but his watch, he plunged into the water, and succeeded in catchi g the drowning boy under the water, after he had gone down for the third time. The boy, as we stated above, was black, and fils resouer was white.

THE UNITED FTATES COURT .- The District Court was opened at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, Hon. George S. Bryan, presiding :

The United States marshal was ordered to bring the forty boxes of manufactured tobacco seized at Darlington, and addressed to G. Fellin. Charleston, S. C. to this city, and deliver to G. Follin the thirty-one boxes of said tobacco de scribed in the inventory of R. J. Donaldson, col lector. The remaining nine boxes to be held sub ject to the further order of this court.

A. Waycott, master of the ship J. C. Boynton, vs. Jean M. Fredsburg. Libel against goods for freight. After hearing the arguments in this case, the judge decreed for the libellant the sum of $81 20 and costs. Adjourned until 10 o'clock Monday morning.

BASE BALL.-This afternoon the Carolina Base Ball Club intend visiting Mount Pleasant for the purpose of playing a game with their friends, the Jaspers, of Sulivan's Island. It is not often game occurs. In the city, the spectators are exposed to the intense rays of the sun, when watchome of the best material in the city' therefore an exciting and interesting match may confidently be anticipated. The weather is extremely warm at present, and the trip to Mount Pleas ant will prove exhibitating to our scorched citizens. The fare, also, is but a small matter, so that it is in the power of all to witness the game. The steamer will make an extra trip at 1 o'clock to-day for the accommodation of visitors.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT .- Yesterday afternoon, about haif-past 4 o'clock, Thomas Jennings Rvan, a von h well known about the city as subject to frequent epileptic attacks, fell from the south side of Adger's North wharf into the dock and was drowned. The unfortunate boy was standing at the edge of the wharf, within a fe w yards of some men, whose attention was first attracted by the heavy splash he made as he fell into the water. Persons on the opposite side of the dock saw him clutch once or twice convulsively with his hands and by the working of his jaw it was plain that he had been overtaken by one of his usual attacks. Several sailors from the Manhattan, lying in the same dock, and otners, dived for him, but without success He never rose, but remained in the water about two hours. when a small white boy who, among others, was dragging for him with his fishing tackle, hooked his clothing, and brought the body to the surface. It was raised at once to the wnarf, and lay there while the coroner was notified. An inquest was held over the body on the wharf, and the jury returned a verdict of death from accidental drown

THE WATERNELON TRADE. - Few people, not engaged in it, have an idea of the magnitude of e watermelon trade of Augusta, Ga., during the season. Thou-ands of these delicious and julcy fruits are annually shipped from that city to Philadeiphia, New York and other places, where they find a ready sale at high prices. Small farmers who cultivate watermelons say that they can realize more from this crop, and with much less labor and outlay, than they could from a large cotton plantation; and instances are not wanting of watermelon-growers having made as high as ten dollars a day net profit during the season, with an ontlay of not more than three hundred dollars, and with only one man and mule to assist in cull vating and harvesting the crop. From the 3d to the 7th instant, 9362 watermelon were shipped on the Central Railroad to New York, and of this number 5939 were sent in one day-on the 7th. During the same time, 5907 melons were forwarded by the South Carolina Railroad to New York, and 550 to Charleston. At an average price of twenty-five cents each, wholesale, this would amount to nearly three thousand dollars in value, which is, however, but the beginning of the trade, that has as yet barely opened: for we understand that the crop during the present season will be one of the largest ever produced in Georgia, and contracts have been enter ed into with parties in New York and elsewhere who are ready to take and dispose of any quantity of watermelons that can be obtained.

Two Monster Sharks .- Yesterday mornwith the ebb tide, succeeded in capturing two sharks of enormous dimensions, just off Fort Sumter. The monsters were towed up to North the wharf. The larger one measured to the whatf. The larger one was the feet and one inch from the tip of his nose to the end of his tall, and weighed five hundred and eighty pounds. The other measured eleven feet four inches, and weighed five hundred and sixty pounds. These are two of the largest marine nonsters which have been captured lately, and one of them is the largest that has been taken here since the war. His mouth is a serratio cavern, armed with several rows of sharp saw teeth, and the look from his eyes is anything but inviting. He had about twenty-five pounds of horse flesh between his jaws, which added not a little to the beauty of his appearance. These two individuals, just introduced to the City of Charleston, are said to belong to the common species of ground sharks. The report of their capture speedily drew a large crowd down to North Atlantic wharf to see the Leviathans brought in. As the boat came up to the side of the dock with the sharks, towed one on each side, the crowd naturally came to the edge of the wharf to look over. The old wharf beat, and at length gave away with a rumbling crash. The crowd were latent upon the sharks, and found themselves suidenly launched into the dock, on a most insecure and dangerous raft. posed to the intenserays of indicate, which was all to be sentimed and described in the section of the section one way and another, and no one was damaged in the slighest, beyond a small pinch from the timbers and a good ducking.

> THE COLORED CHURCU IN SUMMERVILLE .-A correspondent writes to THE NEWS denying the charge made in a recent communication to the Courier to the effect that the colored congregation in Summerville have been boisterous to an unseemly degree in their religious exercises. He contends that the meetings are conducted in as onlet and as orderly a manner as those of any other church in the village. .

THE SULLIVAN'S ISLAND FERRY.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS.

I notice in this morning's News a statement that several hundred persons were left on Sullivan's Island. I beg to say there must be some mistake, as not a person to my knowledge reunited transportation after the last trip.
